None of the above mine names reported in the SEBR or the CMID. Information about a mine at this location was obtained from the Adams County history, which indicates that a mine at this location, operated by the "Treats," was the first open pit mine in the area. The Spring Butte Coal Mine apparently was licensed at least in 1910 and 1911, and it may or may not be the, same mine operated by the Treats and possibly by the Petersons (see Notes, below).

Descriptive information pertaining to this mine is included in:

Erickson and Merwin:1976(583)

Notes:

Erickson and Merwin (1976) indicate that the Treat family operated a mine at this AML location; they also indicate that P.J. Peterson purchased the Treat's land in 1906. No information was noted that definitely indicates that Peterson operated a mine here. The 1910 and 1912 CAL reports indicate that the Spring Butte Coal Mine was located at T129N, R92W, Section 4; it is not known if this mine and the Treat Mine are the same mine, nor is it known if the Spring Butte Coal Mine was situated at T129N, R92W, Section 4, SE (this Planning Unit and AML location), or if it was situated in some other portion of Section 4.
